

SFM ASSOCIATE MEMBER AWARD

Robert Pacifico “Above & Beyond” Award Nomination Form – 2009

In 2007, SFM lost a long-time member, past member of the Board of Directors, friend and an all around great person. He was dedicated to the foodservice industry as an active supporter of SFM and other key industry organizations. Bob was a visionary, having worked most of his entire life in this industry. At the time of his death, Bob was Executive Vice President of Romano Gatland in Illinois.

Bob was an artist in his ability to envision foodservice design, and had an inherent ability to make everyone he met feel respected and important. He was a very giving individual, giving of his time, his expertise, and his friendship, above all, Bob firmly believed in education and teaching those around him, and constantly strove to help others learn and improve our industry.

To honor Bob’s memory, the Society for Foodservice Management established the Robert Pacifico “Above and Beyond” Award. This award is given to a deserving Associate Member at the SFM National Conference, in recognition of extended, exemplary, and dedicated service to the Society, his or her community, and the onsite foodservice industry.

Nominated candidates should have a history of involvement and commitment to SFM. They should be dedicated to the promotion and continuing professionalism of the foodservice industry. This individual should be held to high ethical standards and serve as a role model for other SFM Associate Members.

All applications will be reviewed by SFM’s Associate Member Action Committee, which will determine the winner. The award will be presented at the SFM National Conference in Austin, Texas in September.
